

Leadership Luncheon Lecture

Risk and Courage

Mayor Kirk Caldwell shares his keys to effective leadership that guided him to successful careers in the private and public sectors. Placing the needs of his organization above his own and his willingness to walk a path others dared not, led Mayor Caldwell to become a Managing Partner at Ashford & Wriston and his rise to Majority Leader within just 4 years of serving in the Hawaii State House of Representatives. Always bearing in mind Hawaii's unique sense of place, Kirk reflects on lessons learned through successes as well as failures that culminated in his being elected Honolulu's 14th Mayor last November.

Kirk Caldwell

Mayor Kirk Caldwell was born in Waipahu and raised in Hilo, the oldest son of a plantation and country doctor. He studied Urban Planning and Economics at Tufts University, earned an MA. From the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and received his law degree from the UH William S. Richardson School of Law.

Mayor Caldwell was Managing Partner at the law firm of Ashford and Wriston, and began his public service career in 2002, when he was elected to the Hawaii State House of Representatives, and quickly rose to become the House Majority Leader.

Mayor Caldwell was appointed Managing Director for the City and County of Honolulu in January 2009, and served as Acting Mayor in 2010. He was elected to 14th Mayor of Honolulu this past November and assumed office on January 2 this year.
