LEADERSHIP LUNCHEON LECTUREHawaii Pacific University:
Educating for Global Citizenship

President Wright will be talking about Hawaii Pacific University's mission and ethos to educating for global citizenship. He will also present a history of Hawaii Pacific's involvement with students from more than 110 different countries all over the world.

Chatt Wright

Chatt Wright joined Hawaii Pacific in 1972 as its founding business administration dean, bringing with him his leadership experience as President and CEO of The Queen's Health Systems as well as leadership in local city and state government. Named President in 1976, Mr. Wright has led HPU to its position as the largest private college in Hawaii, with a 9000-strong student body, over 50 different fields of study, three flourishing campuses, and an endowment with a market value of more than $80 million. Mr. Wright is an active community leader, involved in many arts, education, and sports charities and community groups, including the Hawai'i Bankers Association, the Children's Discovery Center, and the Hawai'i Asia Pacific Association, among many others.

ASIA PACIFIC COLLEGELeadership Luncheon
Lecture Series

This is a new seminar series designed to fit into the busy schedules of local leaders in the public and private sectors.

The 21st century will present new challenges to leaders the world over. Our mission at APC is to give business and government leaders of the Asia-Pacific community the knowledge and inspiration they need to cope with the effects of burgeoning populations, increasing development, and increasingly volatile international interactions.

We invite you to come and gain insight into the changes sweeping this important region, and to broaden your perspective on global economics, politics, business, and environmental issues. For the latest luncheon lecture series schedule, please visit www.apchawaii.org or call (808) 942-0698.

APC is a non-profit, educational institution, established in 2005. Other programs include a two-year intensive course ending in a Masters in Intercultural Leadership (MIL), as well as short-term workshops and certificate programs designed for students to broaden their cross-cultural perspective on leadership styles and issues in the Asia-Pacific region.
